The Holmes-Liberty "Oriole" Portrays

"Here We Grow - - - - in Organizations, Activities,

Classes, and Sports."

Presented by the Junior and Senior Classes of

1954 and 1955

For we are from Holmes-Liberty High School,
The school that always stands for the rights,
In athletics, in our class work,
Everything we do with all our might,
We'll always love our Alma Mater,
Her honor we shall ever save,
The orange and black of our high school,
O'er Holmes-Liberty will wave.

We, the Juniors and Seniors of '55, are proud to dedicate this volume of "The Oriole" to Mrs. Maskey. As a grade teacher she taught both the present Junior and Senior classes. She helped us in many ways. Perhaps she thought they were small, but actually they turned out to be big. We sincerely hope she will recognize this dedication as a sincere expression of our thanks to her for everything she has done for us.

TRACK

At the time this copy was prepared, it was unknown who would be on the team. But we know now that when the time comes to show off our team we will be proud of them. We hope they will be doing something like the middle cartoon, and certainly hope we don't have a fate like the other two cartoons.
